

Configuring match and merge

Publishers

Publishers

Publishers are source applications that push data into the Data Hub

- They identify themselves using a code when pushing batches of data

Publishers often dictate how the consolidation is made, they are also used to identify the origin of the data certified by xDM.

Make sure to identify the publishers when starting a new MDM project